NOTICE TO COMPETITORS

1. All breeds of dogs and mixed breeds are eligible to compete in C-Wags events.
2. Dogs that are physically-challenged are allowed and encouraged to compete, providing they do not show evidence of being in pain or discomfort. The Judge shall excuse any dog that appears to be in pain or discomfort during the competition. A Judge's decision is final.
3. Owners who are physically-challenged are allowed and encouraged to compete
4. Female dogs in estrus (heat) may not compete.
5. Dogs exhibiting signs of aggression that threaten the safety of other dogs or humans shall be excused from competition at the discretion of either the Judge or the Trial Chairperson. If the Trial Chairperson believes it is necessary in order to ensure the safety of others, he or she shall request that the dog be removed from the show-grounds or confined in such a manner as to remove the threat to others.
6. Dogs must be at least six months of age to compete.
7. Dog ID Cards: Dogs may register with C-Wags up to the day of the trial. <http://www.c-wags.org/regform.html>
8. Awards: C-Wags ribbons will be awarded to every dog/handler team who successfully completes an event. C-Wags does not offer placement ribbons. Title ribbons will be available for teams who have successfully completed four runs under 2 judges at the same level. C-Wags allows teams to run level one and level two concurrently. Ribbons will not be awarded to FEO runs.
9. RULES and CLASS DESCRIPTIONS For a complete description of the C-WAGS rules, regulations, performance guidelines explanation of levels www.c-wags.org. It is YOUR responsibility to understand all rules.

Refund Policy

A dog shall be withdrawn from competition without refund if it is: suffering from any infectious or contagious disease, interfering with the safety of any person or other animal or if it is likely to cause itself damage or suffering if it continues competing. A refund will be provided for bitches that come into season and cannot compete in the show.

There will be no refunds for entries withdrawn and neither in the event a dog and/or handler is dismissed from the competition, regardless of the reason for dismissal providing this was within accordance of C-WAGS rules and regulations.

It is the competitor's responsibility to be available for their class and running order.

It is expressly understood that Competitors alone are responsible for the behavior of their dogs, children and guests. Any competitor whose dogs, children, or guests create unnecessary disturbances or repeatedly engage in unsafe or disruptive behavior, may at the discretion of the show management, be asked to remove the offending dogs, children, guests from the event grounds. No refunds of fees will be made in such a case.

No person shall carry out punitive correction or harsh handling of a dog at any time within the boundaries of the show

Returned checks do not constitute a valid entry. There will be a $25.00 service charge for returned checks. Payment of entry fees and service charges shall be made before a competitor may compete. Any unpaid fees or shortfalls to Hyper Hounds must be paid prior to the start of the event.

All dogs are entered at this show at their owners risk and whilst every care will be taken the show management will not accept responsibility for loss, damage or injury however caused to dogs, persons or property whilst at the show.

The levels within each round are nested together. So each handler can only run one dog per round. (otherwise you would know where the scent is hidden) If you would like to add a second dog to each round you will need a different handler to run the second dog in the same round as your first dog. The second handler must be a member of your immediate family or the round will be for exhibition only (FEO).
