My husband and I acquired our first Dane in 1972. He was a Harlequin, and was sold to us as “show quality.” Well, you can probably guess the punch line.” He was not show quality, but he was a wonderful companion and went everywhere with us: camping, sledding, hiking, swimming, etc.

Meanwhile we went to some matches, dog shows, and handling classes. We also read and studied the standard and every book we could find about Danes and handling. There were not too many dog publications at that time, but we found the dog that we wanted to be behind our foundation in New Hampshire. His name was CH. Dinro’s Simon Templar, bred by Rose Roberts. Off we went in the motor home from California to New Hampshire. Long story short--we got a German import male and a dog and bitch sired by Simon, who was the top harlequin in the country. We also bought a Basset bitch from Simon’s owner, who is to this day my best friend and mentor.

We bred Bassets and Great Danes for the next 20 years under the name “KIMO” which is a Mojave Indian word for Big Dog. We were very blessed to have the foundation stock that we had and the mentoring of my best friend. We have produced many generations of Champions, Specialty winner, group placing and group winning dogs in both breeds.

I applied to judge Bassets first as I was specializing a Great Dane. When his career was finished, I applied for Danes. I am now approved to judge the Working group, the Hound group, Juniors, and BIS. I enjoy judging, and

I try to make every exhibitor comfortable in my ring and feeling as if their exhibit was judged fairly. I have judged Specialties for many breeds all over the country and in Canada. I have judged the Canadian National, and several years ago, I judged the Dane Specialty in New Zealand. I also judged a Dane, Basset, and Rhodesian Ridgeback Specialty in Australia. I was on the Board of the Great Dane Club of America for six years, and I am the Judges' Education Chairman for the Parent Club. I have just completed the production of an educational CD on the Great Dane for judges, breeders, exhibitors, and anyone who wishes to learn about the "Apollo of Dogs." I am a retired teacher, and I share my home with two Bullmastiffs, a wonderful kitty, and my newest addition is a Border terrier named "Scamp" who is a great playmate for the Bullmastiffs and the kitty.

In 1986, a chance encounter with a Samoyed sitting in the driver's seat during my lunch in downtown Seattle led to going to my first all-breed dog show that summer weekend. What a world of wonders with breeds I had never heard of, vendors offering everything under the sun (so it seemed), and of course, my Sams. What started as just a family companion became Canadian Ch. Tsiulikagta's Illamar, and I was hooked!

Joined the regional breed club, and then the national club. Became active in both, and went to my first national in 1991. Studied, was mentored, and for many years went to more dog shows to just watch and learn - other breeds as well as my own - to learn about structure and movement. I also sought to learn the history and purpose of the breeds I observed, to be able to equate and understand the working breeds I observed.

Along the way, Moonstar Samoyeds was established, and I have been fortunate in the mentors (who became good friends) I have had. Our mission/vision: We strive to consistently produce a SPIRIT and temperament that lives easily with its human and canine family and is adaptive to doing what is asked ... soundness of BODY ... movement that takes your breath away ... and beauty that stems from the whole/total dog being in BALANCE and in proportion. We have had BIS winners as well as multiple BISS winners, as well as working titled dogs.

Fast forward to 2009 when all the years of observing, studying and encouragement from my mentors shaped itself into the decision to become a judge. Approved to judge Samoyeds in 2011, I have learned how all those years outside the ring have helped me inside the ring, and I love it! Being able to judge other breeds is a goal, but more important is the journey as I learn each breed's history and standard, and making sure I have the "eye" to judge well.

Thank you for inviting me to judge your sweepstakes. It is a wonderful chance too see your future through the puppies, and your past with the Veterans.
