THESE SHOWS ARE DEDICATED IN MEMORY OF

JOHN CHARLESWORTH

May 9, 1932 to May 25, 2013.

John Charlesworth, honorary member of the Windsor All-Breed Training and Tracking Club, was a valued member of our team who helped host the conformation shows annually.

John will be sadly missed this year without his good disposition and jovial personality presiding over the entire weekend's event. John, originally from Manchester England, came to Canada in 1967 continuing to breed world class Afghan hounds under the Daturrah moniker. The first Canadian Daturrah litter was whelped in 1968 shortly followed by John's first homebred Canadian champion in 1971. This was the start of a successful breeding program that spanned decades.

One of John's greatest joys was his annual visit to Crufts. He always brought back the Crufts catalogue and many things of interest for the members of the club to view at the March Show.

He really missed attending in his later years.

On Friday nights, John would be in his sweat clothes lifting tables, chairs and benches before transforming into the dapper and dashing gentleman that everyone was accustomed to Saturday morning. This annual ritual continued on to the 2012 show, impressive for a man in his eightieth year.

We hope you join us in fondly remembering John Charlesworth.
