Entry Fees

Entry fees have risen. Covid19 has taught the clubs a lot, including the economic impact upon the club and the future of events they host.

We appreciate and recognize the sacrifices and turmoil that exhibitors, breeders, agents and trainers have faced in the past year. Increases in judge travel costs, venues, insurance, work safe dispersals, personal protection equipment, additional sanitation costs, additional licensed labour, have all added a lot to club expenses. It is not just one item, it is the culmination of small or medium things that add up.

Important Change: Should the trials be cancelled the return of entry fees in whole or part is at the discretion of the club. Just because the event is cancelled or postponed the non-profit club of volunteers is still responsible for expenses incurred or to be incurred.

Changes to Scent Detection Protocols

The following motion was passed by the CKC Board on September 22nd, 2020 during a Special Board meeting:

“THAT, effective immediately and until the COVID-19 situation is resolved, that the following section of the Scent Detection Trial Rules & Regulations, effective January 1, 2019 be held in abeyance:

6.8.3 The following classes must be offered: Instinct & Novice.

THAT, effective immediately and until the COVID-19 situation is resolved, clubs will be granted the flexibility to offer their choice of classes, elements and height divisions to meet the availability of facilities and comply with local and provincial regulations relevant to size limits of gatherings.”

This motion provides flexibility for clubs holding Scent Detection Trials, allowing them to offer the choice of classes without having to hold Instinct or Novice classes, offer some or all of the various components (Containers, Interior and Exterior), and offer some or all of the various height divisions (Small, Medium & Large) during the COVID-19 Pandemic.

A reminder that these are temporary policies in place during the COVID-19 pandemic.
