Welcome to Miramichi Kennel Club's

July shows and The Atlantic Canada Extravaganza and Versatility Competition.

We are soooo looking forward to this event and a great weekend of fun with our dogs. After all this rain it looks like we're in for a weekend of nice weather for 4 days of fun in the sun!

The venue opens at 12 noon on Thursday, July 20, 2023, so come prepared to pick your spot and get set for the Sanction Match Thursday evening. $10 allows an owner to enter as many dogs as they like, from baby puppy to graduate, so don't miss this opportunity to get your specials tuned up before the big weekend. Your entries support Joe Panero (Gr 1,3 & 7) and Linda Thompson (Gr 2, 4, 5 & 6) on their road to acquiring their judging licenses. Joe and Linda have been huge supporters of our Atlantic Canada shows so let's fill the rings for them.

We are super excited about these shows and it's been just a wee bit of a scheduling challenge but we'll all manage to stay "chill" in this hot weather. We'll work through any perceived conflicts and make sure that everyone gets in the ring, as long as we're aware ahead of time that you think there might be a conflict between another event. Stay calm and let our secretary know ahead of time and we'll make sure everything works out. Those entered in the Whippet Club of Eastern Canada Events and also conformation or obedience events, could you let me know via patrickmudge2@yahoo.ca when your best times are for running in your sprinter/chase ability/coursing events.

If you have any free time, check out our dockdiving pool and the NADD event that is happening; sign up for a "Try-it" time or talk to our judge/clinician Megan-Rai Ferguson or Walter about our ticketed event where, just like at the carnival, you purchase 4 tickets (referred to as "Splashes", they have their own lingo!) that you can hand in anytime over the course of the day and get in line for the rollercoaster!

We're super excited about our 4 evening events, the HIT of HITS heeling competition on Friday, Saturday's Atlantic Extravaganza conformation competition for group winners, Sunday's Puppy of the Year Competition and Monday's Rally Run-off. If you qualify for any of these events (see premiumlist for details) make sure that your entry is in when you pick up your armbands from the secretary.

Please stick around to show your support for these outstanding dogs who have done so well at our Atlantic Canada shows and trials. Check out the running events. Maybe one of them interests you and your dogs. Versatility is a good thing!

We have three great specialties this weekend; Atlantic Terrier Association specialty on Saturday afternoon, and I have to tell you it is a stellar lineup of world class terriers. I don't think there's anything else going on in the conformation rings so treat yourselves to a literal feast for your eyes and come and watch the terrier judging. On Sunday we have two rottweiler specialties with fantastic entries like I haven't seen in years, and maybe never in Atlantic Canada.

Canine Good Neighbour evaluations will be done on Saturday. Sign up is available at the secretary's table and our evaluators, Renee Morris (NB) and Glenda Johnson (NS) are looking forward to a day of meeting wonderful well-behaved dogs.

There will be a scent detection demonstration at 9:30 am in the tent between rings 5 & 6 on Saturday and also at 4pm that day there will be a demonstration by NORTH AMERICAN VERSATILE HUNTING DOG ASSOCIATION'S (NAVHDA) chapter president, Tristan Rutter, on upland game dogs, training and hunting. Location TBA.

Venue opens at 7am every morning. The Woodsmoke Café will be open and we'll have some longer hours to make sure no one goes hungry late afternoon/early evening.

Directions from Fredericton, follow HWY 8 toward Miramichi. About 31 km along the new hwy watch for the sign for Stanley. Exit left onto hwy 107. Follow about 9 km to the village of Stanley. At the stop sign take the second right, staying on hwy 107 driving 3 km to Noteworthy Farm, on the right hand side.

Noteworthy Farm, 1256 Rte 107, Cross Creek, NB, E6B 1V6

OH!! The Rules!!

Stoop N Scoop!

Put on a happy face!

Have Fun!

Treat one another with respect! Especially our judges and volunteers!

Be respectful of the venues where you are staying! Pick up after your dogs.

If you're staying in the village, remember that the residents appreciate us being here, love the excitement and activity we bring. Give them a friendly smile!
