Garry K. Newton

I have been involved with the sport of pure-bred dogs since the 70's. Although my first show dogs were Great Danes, which I brought back from England from my overseas military service, I am best known for my involvement with sighthounds, and more specifically Salukis. I first showed under the kennel name S'Dawn, but after marrying my wife, Dr. Judith A. Newton, we combined our kennels under the name of Solari, named after the first Saluki that we owned together.

We have successfully bred and exhibited Salukis since the 1980's. Our Salukis have excelled in the conformation ring, obedience, lure coursing, and junior showmanship.

I have owned and /or bred Afghan Hounds, Salukis, Ibizan Hounds, Greyhounds, Petite Basset Griffon Vendeen, Borzois, and Great Danes, as well as a Golden Retriever, Italian Greyhound, a Toy Fox Terrier, and a Parson Russell Terrier.

I have been involved in the sport of lure coursing since the 1970's, both as a participant, as a judge and lure operator. I served on the first AKC (American Kennel Club) advisory panel for lure coursing when AKC first started lure coursing.

I am currently approved by the American Kennel Club to judge both conformation (Hound, Herding and Working Groups, Junior Showmanship, and Best in Show) and lure coursing.

I have been honored to judge throughout the United States, Canada, Ireland, Finland, Sweden, South Africa, Australia, Korea, Germany, Japan, and China. I have also been honored to judge multiple local as well as national specialties.

In my non-canine professional life, I am a Director of Nursing / Registered Nurse and an internationally known canine sculptor, working in both bronze and stone. I am also a published author of a fictional novel.

Dr. Judith A. Newton, PhD

I was first introduced to the world of pure-bred dogs by rescuing two Afghan Hounds in Northwest Arkansas where I grew up. Through contacts made due to these dogs I was introduced to the world of pure-bred show dogs. My first "show" dogs were Afghan Hounds followed by Salukis. My first Afghan Hound fell in love with my husband, Garry Newton, and asked if he (the Afghan Hound) could keep him (Garry).

I have also owned Greyhounds, Borzoi, Ibizan Hounds, as well as a Great Dane, Golden Retriever, Petite Basset Griffon Vendeen, Toy Fox Terrier, and a Parson Russell Terrier

I made Garry co-own and campaign an Afghan Hound before I would marry him, figuring that if two people can survive that they can survive almost anything.

I am a PhD chemist as well as a certified secondary science teacher. I am currently self-employed as an educational consultant.

Garry and I are best known in the dog world for our Salukis, having produced over 50 conformation champions with a very limited breeding program. We have also produced multiple Best in Field (lure coursing) winners, High in Specialty Trial obedience dogs, Best Junior Handler (both dog and child), and most important, good companions.

Garry and I handled professionally for a while, specializing in the sighthounds. We finished the conformation championship on over thirty Irish Wolfhounds as well as many other breeds.

I have judged lure coursing since the mid 80's and conformation since the mid 90's. I have judged all over the world including Sweden, Finland, Canada, Japan, China, and Australia. I judged the first AKC lure coursing National Championship.
